ABSTRACT

This children's book tells the story of 10-year-old Jimmy who is having problems at school and believes he is stupid. After a parent-teacher conference, he is tested and found to have a learning disability. The book discusses the characteristics of learning disabilities and the help Jimmy receives from a tutor. It concludes with Jimmy performing successfully on a social studies test. A list of famous people with learning disabilities and resource organizations is also included. Black and white pictures accompany the text. (CR)
